CORPORATE OVERVIEW

The Company's principal business activities are the exploration for, development of, and operation of gold mining properties. The Company operates through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Galane Gold Mines Ltd., two assets: (a) a producing gold mine which also has the rights to certain mineral exploration tenements (the mine and mineral exploration tenements collectively, the "Galaxy Property") located in the Republic of South Africa ("South Africa") through subsidiaries located in South Africa; and (b) a gold and silver mine and processing infrastructure located in the United States of America (the "Summit Property") that is currently in care and maintenance while a restart plan and financing is finalised. The common shares in the capital of the Company (the "common shares") have been listed for trading on the TSX Venture Exchange (the "Exchange") in Canada under the symbol "GG" since September 6, 2011 and trade on the OTCQB in the United States under the trading symbol "GGGOF".

OUTLOOK

The Company continues to execute the Galaxy Property development plan, which is expected to result in an increased annual production over the next three years to 27,000 payable ounces of gold through the addition of new mining equipment and additional face workings to utilize the spare capacity in Galaxy's new 50,000 tonnes per month ball mill circuit. On February 27, 2024, the Company closed the previously announced metal purchase and sale agreement with Empress Royalty Holding Corp. ("Empress"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Empress Royalty Corp., under which the Company received an up-front cash payment of $5 million for payable gold produced from the Galaxy mine. These funds are being invested in additional new mining equipment, refurbishment of existing mining equipment and working capital to accelerate underground development to access a second level at Galaxy to enable an increase in mining volumes to utilize the significant spare capacity in the processing plant. In April and May 2024, the Company took delivery of one new drill rig, a loader and a dump truck, with additional equipment scheduled to arrive in Q3 2024. Improvements are being seen in both ore tonnes and development metres following the recent investment in new equipment.

Work continues on the restart plan for the Summit Property. The Company continues to work with potential financing providers and off-take partners, with several indicative term-sheets received to date, to put in place a non-dilutive financing package to facilitate the re-start of operations at the Summit Property as soon as possible, providing accretive near-term production and including a significant silver component and geographic diversification.

Additional mining equipment was delivered in Q2 2024 and came into service towards the end of the quarter following commissioning and training. The Company continues with its overhaul schedule for its existing mining equipment, aided by the Stream Investment (defined below). Once this equipment is returned to service, the Company aims to further increase mining volumes going forward.

Net loss for the period	(806,027)	(1,638,292)	(402,100)	(1,352,347)

Revenue for Q2 2024 was $3.0 million which is $0.5 million higher than Q2 2023 and was generated from the sale of 1,721 provisional contained ounces of gold (1,357 payable ounces of gold) at a realised gold price of $2,316 / payable oz ($1,827 / contained oz). Revenue for YTD 2024 was $5.2 million which is $0.7 million higher than revenue for YTD 2023 and was generated from the sale of 3,093 contained ounces of gold (2,456 payable ounces of gold) at a realised gold price of $2,202 / payable oz ($1,749 / contained oz).

Income from mining operations was $0.3 million for Q2 2024 compared to income of $0.2 million in Q2 2023. Increased revenue in Q2 2024 has been partially offset by increased mine operating costs that totaled $2.7 million in the quarter due to increased mined tonnes and movements in finished goods inventory at quarter end. Income from mining operations of $0.5 million for YTD 2024 compares to a loss of $0.3

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024

million for YTD 2023, the variance predominantly driven by increased revenues, partially offset by increased operating costs in YTD 2024.

Corporate general and administrative costs remained consistent at $560,000 in Q2 2024 in line with Q2 2023 at $549,000 and $1.1 million YTD 2024 compared to $1.0 million YTD 2023.

The foreign exchange loss of $22,000 for Q2 2024 was driven by a strengthening of the South African Rand against the U.S. Dollar during the quarter, offset by a marginal weakening of the Canadian Dollar and Pound Sterling. A foreign exchange gain of $0.1 million YTD 2024 compares to a gain of $0.2 million YTD 2023.

Interest on borrowings increased to $0.4 million in Q2 2024 due to the inclusion of $131,000 of finance costs associated with the significant financing component associated with the deferred revenue recognised as part of the Stream Investment. Financing expenses totaled $0.7 million YTD 2024, an increase of $0.4 million compared to YTD 2023 due to increased borrowings and the inclusion of the significant financing component associated with the deferred revenue.

Other financing expense was $41,000 for Q2 2024 compared to income of $175,000 in Q2 2023. The current quarter represents the accretion charge on the Company's restoration and rehabilitation provision, which in the comparative quarter was offset by a fair value gain on the Company's warrants. The same is seen when comparing YTD 2024 to YTD 2023 where other finance expenses were $81,000 compared to income of $173,000.

Other expenses of $24,000 for Q2 2024 represent costs associated with the Summit Property that have been expensed. YTD 2024 other expenses include $324,000 of transaction costs incurred on the Stream Investment agreement (comprising reimbursable technical, legal and financial due diligence costs, and both the Company's and Empress's legal fees) and $57,000 representing costs associated with the Summit Property that have been expensed.

Total shareholders' equity as at the end of Q2 2024 decreased by $1.6 million compared to Q4 2023 due to the loss and comprehensive loss recorded for Q2 2024.

LIQUIDITY, CAPITAL RESOURCES AND GOING CONCERN

The Company defines capital as consisting of shareholders' equity, being made up of issued capital stock, contributed surplus and deficit and long-term debt. The Company's objectives when managing capital are primarily to support the creation of shareholder value, but also to ensure that the Company is able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has not declared or paid any dividends on its common shares.

In order to fund the business activities intended in its current business plan, the Company closed the $5 million Stream Investment in February 2024, the proceeds of which are being used to invest in mining equipment and underground development at the Galaxy Property, following which management expects that the mining operations at the Galaxy Property will begin to provide positive cash flow from its operations that are sufficient to support its corporate expenses and capital expenditure requirements for the Galaxy Property. As described above under "Summary of Financial Position", at June 30, 2024, the Company had a working capital deficiency of $6.3 million and had negative operating cash flow of $1.1 million for Q2 2024, predominantly due to changes in working capital.

The Company's officers and senior management take full responsibility for managing the Company's capital and do so through regular review of financial information and cashflow forecasting. The Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing this process.

Going Concern

The Interim Financial Report was prepared using IFRS that are applicable to a going concern.

As at June 30, 2024, the Company had a working capital deficiency (current assets less current liabilities) of $6.3 million, including a fully drawn $3.0 million rolling prepayment loan facility. Earnings from mining operations were $0.3 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2024. Cashflow from operating activities was negative $1.1 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2024, predominantly due to changes in working capital.

The Directors have performed an assessment of the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern which covers a period of at least 12 months from the date of approval of the Interim Financial Report. Risks to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern include the ability of operations to meet production targets to generate sufficient cash flow to manage working capital and re-pay borrowings upon maturity. It is currently anticipated that the Company will re-draw its rolling pre-payment facility in the next twelve months and with the recent Streaming Agreement, the Company is investing in the next stage of its development plan, which targets a significant increase in production and operating cash flow. Should the Company not be successful in achieving its production targets and positive cash flow it may be necessary for the Company to raise additional funding which is not guaranteed. This indicates the existence of material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. Therefore, the Company may be unable to realise its asset and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. Because of these uncertainties, there can be no assurance that the measures that management is taking to mitigate risks to the Company's liquidity position will be successful. The current commodity price and exchange rate environment can be volatile, which may have an impact on the Company's cash flows and the Company continues to review its near-term operating plans and to take steps to reduce costs and maximize cash flow generated from operations.

The Interim Financial Report does not reflect adjustments to the carrying values of the assets and liabilities, the reported revenues and expenses, and the balance sheet classifications used, that would be necessary if the Company were unable to realize its assets and settle its liabilities as a going concern in the normal course of operations. Such adjustments could be material.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, trade and other receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, interest bearing loans and borrowing, and warrants denominated in foreign currencies. The fair value of the Company's trade and other receivables, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their carrying value. The Company's other financial instruments, specifically interest-bearing loans and borrowings are recorded at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. The Company is subject to normal industry credit risks. The credit risk related to the trade receivable is considered minimal as gold and gold concentrate is sold to creditworthy offtake partners and settled promptly, usually within the following six to eight weeks and the other receivable balance consists of amounts outstanding on tax credits from governmental authorities, each of which are expected to be paid in the near term at face value. Management believes that the Company's exposure to credit risk is minimal.

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to try to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. See the "Liquidity and Capital Resources" section in this MD&A for further commentary on the Company's liquidity risks.

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Company's operations are in South Africa, the U.S.A. and Canada and its presentation currency is U.S. dollars. The international nature of the Company's operations results in foreign exchange risk as transactions are denominated in foreign currencies, including the South African Rand and Canadian Dollars. The operating results and the financial position of the Company are reported in U.S. dollars. The fluctuations of the operating currencies in relation to the U.S. dollar will, consequently, have an impact upon the reported results of the Company and may also affect the value of the Company's assets and liabilities. The Company monitors the volatility of foreign exchange rates and will hedge its currency risk if it determines that the need arises.

Interest risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market risk. The Company monitors the volatility of interest rates and will hedge its interest risk if it determines that the need arises.

Market risk is the risk that the fair values of financial instruments or that the Company's future cash flows will fluctuate because of changes in market commodity rates. The Company's efforts are currently focused on the production of gold. As such, the Company's future cash flows and valuation of its mineral assets will be exposed to market risk on the price fluctuations of gold as a commodity.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION TO MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Cash Costs

This MD&A refers to operating cash cost excluding royalties per ounce which is a non-GAAP performance measure, in order to provide investors with information about measures used by management to monitor performance. Management uses this information to assess how well the producing gold mines are performing compared to plan and prior periods, and also to assess the overall effectiveness and efficiency of gold mining operations. Cash cost figures are calculated in accordance with a standard developed by the Gold Institute, which was a worldwide association of suppliers of gold and gold products and included leading North American gold producers. The Gold Institute ceased operations in 2002, but the standard is still an accepted standard of reporting cash costs of gold production in North America. Adoption of the standard is voluntary, and the cost measures presented herein may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies. Cash cost includes mine site operating costs such as mining, processing, administration, but are exclusive of impairment, amortization, reclamation, and exploration and development costs. Operating cash cost is the total cash cost less those costs capitalized as attributable to the removal of excess waste in developing new resources. These costs are then divided by the Company's ounces of gold produced to arrive at the cash cost measures on a per ounce basis. These measures, along with sales, are considered to be key indicators of a company's ability to generate operating earnings and cash flow from its mining operations. These measures of cash costs do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by IFRS and differ from measures determined in accordance with IFRS. They are intended to provide additional information and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for measures of performance prepared in accordance with IFRS. These measures are not necessarily indicative of net earnings or cash flow from operations as determined under IFRS.

The following tables provide a reconciliation of cash cost measures for the mine to the mining costs excluding impairment, depreciation and amortization reflected in the Interim Financial Report.
